

WS

Tourism operators bid for heritage

TOURISM operators have called for protection for the Kimberley as Federal Environment Minister Tony Burke will this month consider listing large tracts of the region for National Heritage. The group of operators are calling for the listing to protect the region from inappropriate development and to encourage tourism in the region.